

SETTLEMENT WORKERS IN SCHOOLS (SWIS)

SWIS supports the settlement of newcomer students and their families in school and the community.

The program is a partnership between Eastman Immigrant Services and
Hanover School Division
Seine River School Division and is funded by
Immigrant Refugee and Citizenship Canada

WHAT DO SWIS WORKERS DO?

To support settlement, we will:

- help to determine needs of newcomer students and their families,
- connect newcomer students and their families to resources in the schools and community,
- encourage family involvement in the student's school life,
- access services and resources when there are barriers due to language,
- promote cultural diversity by informing the school of newcomer topics.

WHO IS THE SWIS PROGRAM FOR?

Newcomer students and their families

SWIS services are provided in schools of the:
Seine River School Division and
Hanover School Division

"Our goal is to best serve our clients needs while fostering independence and assisting them in participating and integrating into their new community."
